Monthly Equity Roundup – July 2022

July 2022 – Review

Indian equity markets rose during the month under review as global crude oil prices came down to some extent which gave some respite to market participants regarding the burgeoning import bill of the country. Upbeat domestic corporate earning numbers of some major companies in the IT, FMCG, cement and banking and financial services sector for the quarter ended Jun 2022 further added to the gains. Optimism over the government's increased capital expenditure plan and hopes that the U.S. Federal Reserve will slow down the pace of interest rate hikes in the upcoming meetings also generated optimism in the markets. During the month, S&P BSE Sensex and Nifty 50 rose 8.58% and 8.73% to close at 57,570.25 and 17,158.25 respectively. S&P BSE Mid-Cap and S&P BSE Small-Cap rose 10.77% and 9.16% respectively during the month.

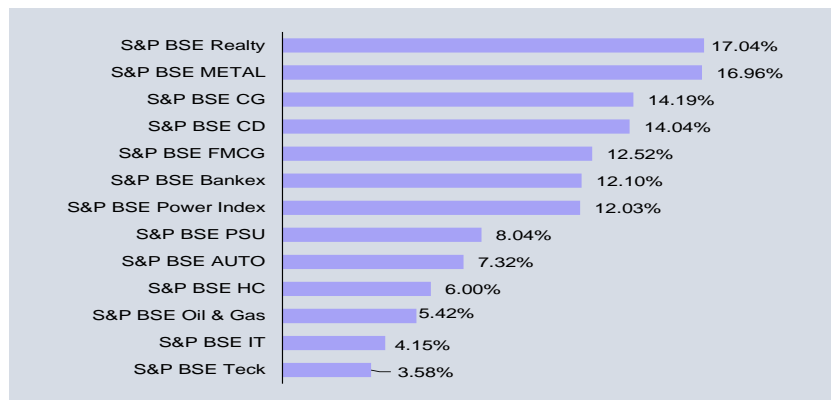

According to data from the National Securities Depository Ltd, foreign portfolio investors were net buyer of domestic stocks worth Rs 7.39 crore compared with net sale worth Rs. 50,145.32 crore in Jun 2022 (investment route through stock exchange). Domestic mutual funds remained net buyers in the equity segment to the tune of Rs. 6,919.60 crore in Jul 2022 (updated till Jul 27). Domestic equity markets rose initially during the month under review as global crude oil prices came down which eased concerns over rising inflation to some extent and led to expectations that the Reserve Bank of India led Monetary Policy Committee may go slow on rate hikes in the coming months. On the global front, reports that China is planning a $75 billion infrastructure fund to revive its flagging economy further contributed to the upside.

However, optimism in the markets were short lived as volatility re-emerged with worries over rising inflation and fears of a looming recession playing spoilsport.

India's retail inflation stayed above the Reserve Bank of India's upper tolerance limit of 6% for the sixth consecutive month in Jun 2022 while the U.S recorded a 41-year-high inflation of 9.1% in the same month which once again fueled concerns of aggressive monetary policy tightening by central banks across the globe. Renewed concerns over COVID-19 outbreak in China further added to the losses. Markets also remained under pressure after data showed that China's economy grew at the slowest pace in the second quarter of 2022 since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic.

On the BSE sectoral front, all the indices closed in green. S&P BSE Realty rose the most in Jul by 17.04% followed by S&P BSE Metal, S&P BSE Capital Goods and S&P BSE Consumer durables which rose 16.96%, 14.19% and 14.04% respectively. S&P BSE Realty rose after real estate developers reported strong sales for the quarter ended Jun 2022 due to strong demand for residential properties. The metal sector gained as market participants lapped up metal stocks on the back of favourable valuations. Hopes of strong demand from China also contributed to buying behaviour among market participants. Consumer Durables sector and Capital Goods sector rose on hopes that companies will be able to pass on the benefits of falling input costs in the upcoming festive season which is expected to improve demand. FMCG sector also benefitted as global prices of edible oils came down.

Global Economy:

U.S. equity markets rose initially during the month under review amid reports that the U.S. President may announce a rollback of some U.S. tariffs on Chinese imports. Upbeat U.S. jobs data for Jun 2022 also contributed to the upside. Market sentiments were further boosted after the U.S. Federal Reserve chief indicated that the pace of rate hikes may slow down in the upcoming months once inflation peaks out in U.S. Upbeat earning numbers for the quarter ended Jun 2022 from major technology companies in U.S. also contributed to the upside.

Total expenditure stood at Rs. 9.48 lakh crore or 24.0% of the budget estimate as compared to 23.6% in the corresponding period of the previous year.

Outlook

Moving ahead, domestic equity markets will be dictated to some extent by incoming macroeconomic data as the same will depict the stability and resiliency of the Indian economy. The outcome of the upcoming monetary policy review will remain in sharp focus as the same is expected to provide some cues regarding interest movement in the coming months. Retail inflation data will also be on the radar of the market participants as the same will have a bearing on the domestic monetary policy. The earnings season for India Inc. is also expected to impact markets as some key companies are yet to report their earnings for the quarter ended Jun 2022. On the global front, monetary policy by major central banks, Russia-Ukraine unrest, the ongoing unprecedented energy crisis in Europe, political development in Italy and Britain and global crude oil prices will be closely tracked. In addition to the above mentioned factors, transaction trends of foreign institutional investors and the movement of the rupee against the greenback will also have its impact on the markets.

Bond yields moved in a broad range during first half of the reported month. Factors that triggered fall in yields are decline on U.S. Treasury yields and global crude oil prices amid concerns over a slowdown in global growth. Yields also fell following easing of domestic consumer inflation for Jun 2022. On the contrary, yields rose on concerns that the U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) would continue to raise interest rates at an aggressive pace to put a check on rising U.S. inflation. Higher than expected increase in U.S. consumer inflation for Jun 2022, further dampened sentiments. Also the outcome of the first weekly debt auction of the July month came below market expectations. Yields also rose after one of the weekly auction of government securities saw devolvement on primary dealers. In the second half of the month, after a brief lull, yields resumed its fall as global crude oil prices came down, which boosted market sentiments. Gains were extended following a decline in yields on U.S. Treasuries, which eased concerns over foreign fund outflow from the domestic debt market. The outcome of the third weekly government auction came along market expectations, which too contributed to the upside. Yields also fell on hopes that the quantum of interest rate hike by the U.S. Federal Reserve will not exceed 75 bps. Gains increased further after the U.S. Fed raised interest rates by 75 bps which was as per market expectations. The U.S. Federal Reserve chief indicated that it may slowdown the pace of rate hikes in the future meetings which also aided market sentiment.

On the macroeconomic front, Consumer price index-based inflation (CPI) eased to 7.01% in Jun 2022 as against 7.04% in May 2022. Consumer Food Price Index (CFPI) also eased to 7.75% in Jun as compared to 7.97% in May. The government slashed taxes on gasoline and diesel and set curbs on food exports, which helped to somewhat contain overall inflation despite a recent sharp rise in food prices. Index of industrial output (IIP) grew 19.6% YoY in May 2022 as against 7.1% rise in Apr 2022 and 27.6% in May 2021. The electricity sector, manufacturing sector and mining sector grew 23.5%, 20.6% and 10.9%, respectively in May 2022. Merchandise exports rose 23.52% YoY to $40.13 billion while imports grew 57.55% to $66.31 billion in Jun 2022. Thus, trade deficit widened to $26.18 billion in Jun 2022 as against trade deficit of $9.60 billion in Jun 2021. Wholesale price index-based inflation (WPI) rose 15.18% YoY in Jun 2022 as against 15.88% in May 2022. WPI based rate of inflation in the same period of the previous year stood at 12.07%. The rise in WPI for Jun 2022 is primarily due to rise in prices of mineral oils, food articles, crude petroleum, natural gas, basic metals, chemicals & chemical products, food products etc.

Liquidity conditions remained favorable during the month under review as the overnight call rate traded below the policy rate in a range from 4.24% to 5.09% in July 2022 compared with that of the previous month when call rates traded in the range of 3.88% to 4.75%. Systemic liquidity remained in abundance as the average net India's banking system liquidity surplus contracted to Rs. 0.83 lakh crore in July 2022 as compared to Rs. 2.01 lakh crore in June 2022. Banks' average borrowings under the Marginal Standing Facility (MSF) window rose to Rs. 5,136 crore in July 2022 from the previous month's average borrowing of Rs. 383 crore. The central bank of India conducted auctions of 91-, 182-, and 364-days Treasury Bills for a notified amount of Rs. 84,000 crore in July 2022 compared with Rs. 1,80,000 crore in the previous month. The cut-off yield stood in the range of 5.14% to 6.33% during the month under review compared with that of the previous month when the cut-off yield was in the range of 3.40% to 3.89%.

The RBI also conducted auction of state development loans (SDL) for a total notified amount of Rs. 38,390 crore in July 2022 compared with the previous month when the total notified amount was Rs. 70,250 crore. The accepted amount stood at Rs. 39,490 crore compared with the previous month when the amount accepted was Rs. 71,250 crore. The cut-off yield ranged from 7.64% to 8.10%, while in the previous month, the cut-off yield was in the range of 6.24% to 7.29%. In addition, the RBI also conducted auction of government securities for a notified amount of Rs. 162,000 crore, for which the full amount was accepted with devolvement on primary dealers amounting to Rs. 5,662 crore. The cut off yield ranged from 6.62% to 7.77%.

Global

On the global front, the U.S. Federal Reserve announced that interest rates would increase by 75 basis points. The Fed said that it had increased its target range for the federal funds rate from 2.25% to 2.50% to accomplish both of its long-term objectives of achieving maximum employment and inflation at a rate of 2%. The Fed reaffirmed its expectation that continued increases in the target range will be appropriate. The Fed emphasised the labour market's sustained resilience and underlined that inflation has remained high due to supply and demand imbalances brought on by the epidemic, higher food and energy prices, and other pricing pressures. European Central Bank (ECB) surprised markets by increasing its benchmark rate up by 50 basis points, bringing its deposit rate to zero. ECB also said that rise in interest rates will aid in the restoration of inflation to the medium-term target set by the Governing Council by strengthening the anchoring of inflation expectations and ensuring that demand conditions are adjusted to achieve its inflation target in the medium term. The Bank of Japan maintained its negative interest rates and yield targets, as widely expected, and predicted that inflation will exceed the target of 2% before declining in the upcoming fiscal year. The policy board continued to charge financial entities who hold current accounts with the central bank a negative interest rate of -0.1%. The 10-year JGB yields will continue to hover around 0%.

Outlook

Monetary Policy committee is scheduled to meet on Aug 3 to 5 for policy review. Market participants are expecting to see minimum rate hike of 25 bps. Falling global crude oil prices, which will ease domestic inflationary pressures is likely to bring bond market. However, despite easing for the second consecutive month in June 2022, consumer inflation continues to remain above the upper tolerance band of RBI. Worries over faster rise in interest rates by the U.S. Fed in the near future may lead to rising in U.S. treasury yields, which may trigger movement in Indian bond yields. Other factors that is likely to keep yields on a higher side are high supply of government securities in the first half of FY23. On the other hand, government's appropriate measures to ensure proper supply of goods in the domestic market may help to restrict inflation to rise above the alarming levels. It may limit RBI to raise interest rates faster than expected.
